Dear Sirs!

Tonight we watched live broadcast from New York and Washington. What happened there is a great tragedy.

We visited those cities. We know well many Americans. That is why we take all these events especially strong.

We feel with your disaster and condole with you.

Best respects,

Vladimir Sinaevsky

Dear Mr. Mastal,

We are shaken by your terrible tragedy of terrorists attacks in New York City and Washington, D.C. Great sacrifices of cruelty and senselessness are unprecedented. We consider it a world tragedy.

ЕСР management and personnel, members of their families express great sympathy and present their condolences to american people, their relatives and friends suffering a loss due to the distress experienced by them.

We believe the U.S. and Russian Governments will join their hands in preventing such tragedies in the future, in creating a firm barrier to international terrorists especially those who intend using nuclear weapons.

On behalf of PA ECP management and personnel
Chief Engineer
